Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Robert Anderson has been a loyal citizen of the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Robert and his wife, Janet, have had a good and loving relationship and have been blessed with six children and several grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, Robert has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Robert has been with the Veterans Administration at the Fort Meade Medical Center for 32 years and seven months, first as a painter working his way up to supervisor of the carpentry and paint shop in the Engineering Division; and,

WHEREAS, Robert will be retiring on January 2, 1988, but his family and friends will be helping him celebrate his retirement on December 30; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of this state's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 2, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing him many years of retirement bliss.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE BAUMGARTNER, SECRETARY OF STATE
